

GSLC – SAFETY MOMENT

Event Planning for Maximum Fun and Safety

Proper Planning will insure an event runs smoothly. Planning can also help you respond appropriately if something should go wrong. Many risks can be minimized with proper planning. Having a pre-event discussion of risk before every event or activity is a meaningful way to keep boys focused on what might go wrong and how to avoid negative outcomes. Below are links from the LDS-BSA Relationship Office to help plan activities.

Blank Planning Template

Aquatics

Athletics

Backpacking

Boating/Canoeing

Business

Camping

Citizenship

Communications

Cooking

Cultural Awareness

Emergency Preparedness

Engineering

Environment

First Aid

Fishing

Forestry

Health Care

High Adventure

Hiking

Hobbies

Leadership

Mechanics

Nature

Orienteering

Physical Fitness

Pioneering

Public Service

Safety

Science

Shooting

Special Cooking

Sports

Tracking

Wilderness Survival

Wildlife Management

Winter Camping

Take a few minutes to make sure your activity planning and time are well utilized, so you can maximize the safety and fun for your activities this year!